

Application for Scholarship

Indiana Women in Public Finance is a nonprofit, educational and professional networking organization composed of women in the public finance industry. The organization promotes and supports the professional growth of its membership by providing opportunities for women to share knowledge, experience and a forum for the exploration of important issues.

Formally organized in 2009, Indiana Women in Public Finance includes members who are state and local government issuers, financial professionals, attorneys, and trust officers, among others.

In support of its mission and for calendar year 2020, the Indiana Women in Public Finance plans to award up to $2,500 in scholarships to an applicant(s) that meets and completes the following:

- Female college student
- Junior or Senior status by the fall of 2020 majoring in any of the following areas: Finance, Public Finance, Law, Government, Accounting, Public Policy, Public Management, or any other closely related field.
- Permanent resident of Indiana
- Provide a college transcript
- Provide a letter of recommendation by the student's academic advisor, department chair, or faculty member with which the student completed coursework
- Completed application form including the completion of two required essays
- A conference call interview may be expected of the finalists and will be scheduled by the Scholarship Committee of the Indiana Women in Public Finance

Applications must be received by April 3, 2020 and can be sent to the following address or email address:
